            Westbrook College is a co-educational institution located on a 40-acre campus in Riverside. Founded in 1958 with a single hall and 96 students, it is now a multidisciplinary college recognised for teaching quality, research output and community service.

            The college is affiliated to the State University and approved by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council. Every programme follows a credit-based semester system with continuous assessment, and students complete a mandatory internship or research project before graduation.

INSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION

About the College

Westbrook College is a co-educational institution located on a 40-acre campus in Riverside. Founded in 1958 with a single hall and 96 students, it is now a multidisciplinary college recognised for teaching quality, research output and community service.

The college is affiliated to the State University and approved by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council. Every programme follows a credit-based semester system with continuous assessment, and students complete a mandatory internship or research project before graduation.

- ✓ Autonomous status since 2011, with the power to design its own curricula
- ✓ MoUs with 30 universities across 12 countries for student exchange
- ✓ Scholarships for merit, sports and first-generation learners
- ✓ Placement cell active since 1994 with 96% graduate placement
